

The following position was unanimously approved by the JCRC Council on Tuesday,
April 13, 2010:

Speaking about Israel: Finding Common Ground

In hopes of nurturing and encouraging a broad community conversation about Israel, we share the following principles of common ground, and affirm our commitment to:

- The right of Israel to exist as the Jewish state.
- The safety and security of Israel and its people.
- Full and open discussion on the range of issues concerning Israel.
- Civility in language and in behavior in dialogue about Israel, even in the face of disagreements